

I am opposed to the total abolition of morse code from amateur radio licensing. I believe that there should be at least a code test for the amateur extra class license. I am also in total opposition to the abolition of the morse code subbands.

Thank you